Alexandria, VA 22314

Dear Judge Poretz,

Pursuant to your Rule 16(b) Scheduling Order of July 18, 2007, the parties in Snyder v. Greenberg Traurig, LLP et al., No. 1:07-CV-469, had planned to report today on their remaining obligations under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 26(f). The parties had discussed and reached agreement on the those obligations, and Defendants had a prepared a joint letter to the Court summarizing that agreement. Defendants forwarded the draft joint letter to Plaintiffs for their signature. In response, shortly before 5 p.m. today, Plaintiff Richard Snyder notified the undersigned that Plaintiffs filed papers with the Court this afternoon dismissing their First Amended Complaint, apparently obviating the need to countersign the letter and file it with the Court. Defendants have not yet seen the notice of dismissal, but Mr. Snyder represented that Defendants have been served a copy by mail.

Sincerely,

Justin Dillon
Attorney for Defendants Greenberg Traurig, LLP, Janet Shih Hajek, Harley Lewin and Steve Wadyka
